Church of the Resurrection

7 February 2021

Welcome to Church today!

What a privilege to meet together, even on Zoom. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever (Hebrews 13:8). Current events remind us of our frailty, but they also serve to direct our hearts to the powerful and loving God who rules over all things. Our circumstances might change, but he never will.

Even though we have to do things differently today our goal is still the same, to grow in our love and knowledge of Christ and to spur one another on to love and serve him.

May the Lord have mercy on our city and our world and bring physical healing as well as turning the hearts of many to him who died and rose again and now reigns in glory.
